Job descriptions are available from vacancies@lbbd.gov.uk

A well-known children's charity has 2 vacancies to join their team for both day and night working.

About the charity: Our charity believes that no matter who they are, what they've been through or what they've done every child has the right to fulfil their potential. Our residential care homes support children with a learning or physical disability &/or additional challenges, including Autism, using the Social Pedagogy model. Our child-centred residential environments support our children to feel safe, happy and nurtured to develop their independence and life skills both within the home and out in the wider community. We are also committed to having a diverse and inclusive workforce and actively encourage applications from male candidates as they are under-represented within our projects.
